

Protective Services

Protective service needs may include emergency situations such as housing issues, a medical crisis, a need for food or assistance with heating and energy costs.

Staff will provide links to resources to help keep vulnerable adults safely independent in their homes. This may include services from nutrition programs, medical providers, and agencies that provide in-home services.